New Testament	Galatians 1:1-10
Psalms	Psalms 96:1-9 (In Unison)	Psalter 815
1	Sing to the Lord a new song; sing to the Lord, all the earth.
2	Sing to the Lord, praise his name; proclaim his salvation day after day.
3	Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous deeds among all peoples.
4	For great is the Lord and most worthy of praise; he is to be feared above all gods.
5	For all the gods of the nations are idols, but the Lord made the heavens.
6	Splendor and majesty are before him; strength and glory are in his sanctuary.
7	Ascribe to the Lord, all you families of nations, ascribe to the Lord glory and strength.
8	Ascribe to the Lord the glory due his name; bring an offering and come into his courts.
9	Worship the Lord in the splendor of his holiness; tremble before him, all the earth.

a few. After Pentecost before Jesus' followers were known as Christian's, they called themselves "The People of the Way" taken from our text this morning: "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life and no one comes to the Father except through me." This "I am" statement of Jesus raised three questions in the minds of his disciples: one by Peter, one by Thomas and one by Philip. Peter asks: "Lord, where is it that you are going?" Thomas follows up with "But Lord, we don't know the way." Finally, Philip asks: "Lord, show us the Father." By reflecting on our Lord's answers to those three questions, we discover: "The Way, the Truth, and the Life."
